Sir A. Ramaswamy Mudaliar, K.C.S.I.,

the portfolio of "Courts of Justice"

BANGALORE.

Sir,

The circumstances detailed below will, I believe, at once make apparent to you my very hard case which cries forth for all just consideration and fair redress.

According to recognised seniority in service in the cadre of District Judges, I stand next to Sri V.
Kandaswami Pillai and above Sri T.N. Mallappa, both of whom have now come to be elevated as High Court Judges.
Sri V. Kandaswami Pillai would be attaining the age of normal superannuation, that is 55 years, according to his date of birth given in the Civil List, on 27th February 1949, about three months hence, and I would be attaining 55 years of age on the 4th December 1948; but like himself I have not yet attained such superannuation age nor actually retired from service now when not only he but also my junior Sri T.N. Mallappa had come to be appointed as High Court Judges, for whom the superannation age is the extended one of 57 years. In the circumstances I may be pardoned as one feeling grievously wronged when I say that I am painfully at a loss to divine what extraordinary considerations had exercised and influenced in preferring my junior Sri T.N. Mallappa over me in the appointments to the High Court Bench, to my extreme detriment and prejudice alike in status and salary orders of the Dewan.

The representation has been considered by Council, may be filed.

salary as much as in their duration: and I feel therefore strongly constrained to hereby lodge my emphatic protest more in sorrow than in anger against the gravest injustice thereby occasioned to me.
